A detailed line drawing of a modern bathroom vanity unit. The unit features a large rectangular mirror mounted on a wall cabinet above a white, oval-shaped sink. The sink is set into a dark, solid countertop. A chrome faucet with a curved spout is positioned behind the sink. To the right of the sink, on the countertop, are a small rectangular soap dish and a single-lever faucet handle. Below the countertop, the vanity has a base with three drawers on the right side, each equipped with a horizontal pull handle. On the left side of the base, there is an open storage compartment. The entire unit is supported by four small, square legs. The drawing is a black and white line art illustration.

The diagram illustrates the installation of the sink and the connection of the water supply lines. On the left, a side view of the sink unit is shown with a faucet. A blue diamond icon with a double-headed arrow indicates the vertical adjustment of the sink. On the right, a top-down view of the sink unit is shown, with blue lines and diamond icons indicating the connection of the water supply lines to the faucet and the hot water tap.
